1. Does this amend current law or program? Yes No Specify

This bill would add new provisions to ORS Chapters 24 and 133.

2. Problem Presented:

Current statutes do not clearly provide that Oregon courts should provide full faith and credit to orders and judgment issued by tribal courts. This proposal would add new provisions to Chapter 24 and Chapter 133 to provide for enforcement of orders and judgments issued by courts of federally recognized Indian tribes.

3. Solution:

The solution is to add language to ORS 24.105 and ORS 24.115 to provide for enforceability of tribal court orders and judgments and to amend ORS Chapters 24 and 133 to provide for enforcement of restraining orders.
